Reports

League

Finished the weekend of the 8th. Almost every team reported, Only 4 teams did not report. This is the best ever. All materials have been sent out with the standings and fines. 15 or 16 teams have not provided mailing info. Must be in Friday. First set are being sent out.

Next season – will do away with registration selection of A,B,C. Replace with 1-6 scoring system. If you have anything that changes competitive stance as a team, include this in registration comments.

Will continue without formal scheduling meeting.

A few complaints were made about blowouts. Will provide info about these situations to the District VP. Presidents need 117 League games decided by 7 or more goals. 16 clubs are involved. Generally it is the younger teams. In some cases, this was done 2 or 3 times. No excuse for running the score up. Question is – how does the District want to address this? Clubs need to think about for the Spring. Tom will talk with North Central. Coaches need to control the game. Also, teams need to report all scores so ranking is appropriate for the next season.

Discussion of increasing fines for failure to report. This season, however, only two teams did not report.

Player registration: Recreation players need to be registered by November 15th. No uploads from Burlington, Cromwell and Rocky Hill.

Not Paid: Berlin, Hartford, Manchester, NB, Newington, Rocky Hill Rec invoices will be sent.

Money has been placed in CD. $45,000 total. Checking is $35,000. This will change as clubs pay.

Referees – Recertification is on line for assignors and referees. Assignors will need to pass a test. CTReferee.net. Every club needs to have an assignor. There is a book on assigning ethics on the referee site. Entry level will be on line by January.

Recommendations for youth referee of the year should be sent to Paul Barbagallo. CentralDistrictReferee@yahoo.com.

Spring registration will be on the new system being developed. Joe Zisk received information for Blue Sombraro but it is not complete. Send your registrations to Reg@segsa
